

ALL STAR LIGHTS OUT

Synopsis:

Another night out for long-time friends Dave and Annabelle. After Annabelle informs Dave she is to move town, Dave, a bit panicked and tipsy, reveals he has actually strong, unconfessed feelings for her since their early teenage years and tries to kiss her. Annabelle didn't expect this and the night is cut short. They separate in a bad mood. Next day, Dave tries to see Annabelle during his break when suddenly a weird cosmic event like a total eclipse starts to take place. As people are panicking and Dave hasn't yet reached Annabelle he decides to leave work and is called to his parents' house. As people don't really know what's going on, Dave, trying to speak to and being worried about Annabelle, decides to follow his friend and colleague Jeff to a roof club party that night as Annabelle may be there despite all is happening there.

Strange beams of light start hitting on the town but they do not seem as dangerous at first, rather spectacular. Dave arrives at the party having picked up some friends and after his friend Jeff takes him in he starts looking for Annabelle whom he eventually finds. However, it is then when the situation starts getting worse - a lightning hits on the roof of the building and people, including Jeff get hurt or get crushed.

Dave's parents house is the closest one so they decide to go there as Dave's mother can attend to Jeff before he's taken to hospital. After some skirmishes on the road against a gang and the encounter of more weird events they eventually reach the house. Things aren't normal over there too as Dave's parents are missing. Jeff passes away from bleeding but at some point he disappears from inside the car and Dave with Annabelle are left wondering.

As the situation gets worst, with destruction and fires caused by the sky beams all around the town they eventually get stuck in the house having nothing to do but wait. More strange events take place as Dave has a vision of his dead sister preparing to go out for a big event and objects appear out of nowhere in the house.

As everything seems desperate, Dave and Annabelle, lying on the sofa waiting for the end, pick up on yesterday's discussion. They talk about their past, Dave talks about the importance of his feelings and for saying things even during what seems to be the end of the world. Annabelle reluctantly admits some feelings towards him but also that she prefers him as her best friend in the reality they're in. Dave tells her once more how he loves her, they argue about selfishness, fear of love and how this is the best moment for coming together.

Eventually and after exchanging a kiss, they fall asleep hugged on the sofa. When they wake up, it is the morning and the sun is shining once more...though they quickly realize this is not exactly the same place. They wake up in a parallel universe...or a reality of their own. Newly wed, in what meant to be their own house.
