EXT- WORLD DESTRUCTION - DAY

The President of the New World Council had decided that all leaders around the world should drop hundreds of nuclear bombs under the oceans to kill off the aliens that had destroyed all life underneath it.

The ocean rises and tsunamis had formed around the world. The polar caps starts melting. Structures starts collapsing and the land masses starts dwindling.

Electricity had been neutralized everywhere. The world is now quiet.

EXT - JEFFERSON COUNTY, WISCONSIN - DAY

Five days later...

The people started walking out of their homes, confused about everything. The neighbors were being checked on. Phones were not working. No electricity. The rainwater turned out to be ok. The lakes were still good. Some cars were able to start up.

INT - THE KINGS HOME - DAY

One car garage attached to the home. No electricity. The fireplace is burning and the logs are dwindling in the living room.

Patricia, a blonde young woman, nice figure. In her late twenties. About 5'7" is turning the logs with a log lifter.

PATRICIA

Lewis, we're going to have to get some logs for the fireplace.

Lewis is in his late twenties. He's slim built with dark hair. Tall. About 6'1" inch, a little shadow around his face as though he's keeping his face from growing into a beard. He's looking outside through his living room window at his neighbors.

LEWIS

I know. I hope that the car starts up.

PATRICIA

Why? Didn't you put some gas in it?

LEWIS

It's not that. Whenever nuclear bombs are set off there's a theory that the electricity would be neutralized.

PATRICIA

My goodness. If the transportation stop running we won't be able to get any supplies.

LEWIS

Well wish me luck, Honey.

Lewis went outside to his car.

LEWIS

(talking to himself)

My neighbors are walking around like those zombies on NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD. I can understand why, with no heat and electricity. It can get pretty cold at night.

Lewis stepped into his car. He put his key into the ignition switch. He turned it. The car turned over.

LEWIS (excited)

Thank God.

He left the car running. Got out and ran into the house.

LEWIS
(shouting)

Pat! Pat!

(concern)

What is it ?

LEWIS
The car started up. I'm letting it run. I'm not taking any chances of it cutting off.

PATRICIA
Maybe we should go to the police Station and find out what's going on.

LEWIS
You mean the Peacekeepers Station don't you?

PATRICIA
Look. Since the New World Council was created and they decided that all of the police stations were now going to be called Peacekeepers

Stations, I couldn't get use to it.
To me they're still police stations.

LEWIS

Whatever you say, Pat. Just as long as we get over there and find out what the Hell is going on. So let's go.

They both got into their car and drove off.

EXT - YOUNG BROTHER'S FARM -DAY

The Young brothers parents had died a while ago and left the farm to their children.

Daniel is the oldest of the sons and works out to keep his body in shape. He acts more like his father. He's twenty seven years old. Muscular and keeps his head shaven. He was placed in charge of the farm.

Anthony wears his hair long to look like the Beatles. He's twenty one years old. Thin. About 5'11". Anthony looks up to his older brother because he fell into a well and his older brother pulled him out.

Paul is twenty years old. Wears his hair long but he likes to keep it in a ponytail. His physic is more like Anthony's.

David is the youngest of the four. He's eighteen years old and is also the shortest. He's plump in the middle because of all the sweet pastries he loves to eat. He tries to prove to himself that he's better than his brothers.

David was out riding on one of the horses they own. The sun was going down. Daniel and Anthony was sawing some wood, while Paul was chopping wood. Anthony stood up to wipe the sweat from his face. He looked up towards the horizon.

ANTHONY

What is that?

Paul stopped chopping wood to look up.

PAUL

Say, it looks as if it's coming right this way.

DANIEL

What is it?

David stopped riding when he saw his brothers looking up at the sky.

ANTHONY

Is it a plane?

PAUL

It can't be.

DANIEL

Why not?

PAUL

Because there's no sound coming from it's engines.

DAVID

Maybe it's a UFO.

Daniel, Anthony, and Paul all turned around to look at David.

DAVID

Well it could be.

They all turned around to look up at the sky. It slowed down and disappeared behind the trees in the forest

ANTHONY

Do you suppose it landed?

PAUL

Lets saddle up the horses and go find out.

ANTHONY

I'll go get the guns.

DANIEL

I'll grab the ammo.

DAVID

I'm ready.

ANTHONY

David. You stay here.

DAVID

Why do I have to stay here?

ANTHONY

Because someone has to watch the farm. We don't want any looters coming around.

DANIEL

We should be back in an hour.

PAUL

Whatever it is. It's behind those trees, in the forest.

They took off riding. Anthony looked back while riding away.

ANTHONY

We'll be back little brother.

EXT-THE EVANS-DAY

Carter Evans used to be a factory worker before all Hell broke loose. He's an African American rugged built man. He's dark complexion. His hair was short with long sideburns. He wore a thin mustache on his face.

Lisa Evans is an African American young woman. About in her thirties. She's dark complexion with long braided hair. She always wear her hair in a ponytail. They were able to drive to the peace keeper's station. They got out of their car and went in.

INT - THE PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

The Peacekeepers Station used to be the town's police station. It was renovated according to the New World Council's specifications.

The peacekeepers were dressed like German soldiers. They were all busy calming down the townspeople. The townspeople were all mingling together trying to grasp what was happening.

CARTER

What's happening out there?

PEACEKEEPER

Are there any more of you from where you came from?

LISA

Yes. They were hiding inside of their homes.

PEACEKEEPER

Do you have any kind of communication device?

CARTER

No. Everything's down in my town. I Want to speak to someone in charge.

PEACEKEEPER

Follow me.

Carter and Lisa followed the peacekeeper through a door that opened into another room. A picture of the mayor was on the wall. An elderly white man with white short hair was on the portrait. There was a desk under the portrait with a gavel on it. Behind the desk was another door that led into the mayor's office.

Twenty people were in the front of the room arguing. Carter and Lisa were led into a large room. As they entered there was a commotion going on. There were over a hundred townspeople also in the room. They were arguing about everything.

PEACEKEEPER

If you would find somewhere to sit.
The mayor is going to make his speech soon.

Carter and Lisa started walking around.

LISA

(excited)

Carter Look! There's Robert and Linda.

CARTER

(shouting)

Hey Rob! Rob !

Robert turned around.

ROBERT

(excited)

Carter? Linda look. It's Carter and Lisa.

Robert and Linda walked over to meet Carter and Lisa.

CARTER

Hey buddy. Did they tell you what's happening?

ROBERT

No. They just said that there was no communication with the outside world.

LINDA

Where's your kids, Lisa?

LISA

They're at the house. My brother came by when he heard what the New World Council was about to do.

ROBERT

It looks like the whole town is here.

LINDA

Who's in charge?

ROBERT

It's Captain Harris Moore.

LISA

Linda, word is, that millions of people are dead in our country.

LINDA

Lisa. How did you hear about this?

LISA

Some people, like truck drivers, who couldn't get their trucks

Started were using their CB Radios to make contact. Then the word had spread.

ROBERT

I heard that the entire west coast
And east coast is underwater.

LISA

I heard that the central states were saved.

CARTER

Wow! That is something.

ROBERT

Look. Here comes the mayor now.

The mayor is a medium size man in his sixties. About 5' 10". He wears thick black eyeglasses. He used to be an attorney and had his own office in town. Everyone in town new him.

The mayor walked in from his office in the back. He sat behind the desk. He hit his gavel on the desk to demand everyone's attention. The townspeople became quiet.

MAYOR

I know that there is a lot of questions you want to ask me, but first let me tell you what information I do have. The only communication I did receive was from Chicago. The people there had reported they could see where the water had stopped. We might be the

Everyone remained quiet.

MAYOR

Communication is being made by the Use of CB Radios.

A hand was raised.

MAYOR

Yes James?

JAMES

Mr. Mayor. I must've been living under a rock? How did the water get that way?

MAYOR

It was man's stupidity. By exploding
Those nuclear bombs, man had melted
The north pole and the south pole.
Yes John?

JOHN

What about those aliens?

MAYOR

After those bombs went off all of
The electricity became neutralized.
There was no more satellite communication. Nothing could withstand that kind of power. Those aliens are dead. Yes Robert?

ROBERT

Is there a plan for survival?

MAYOR

Yes there is. Let me explain. We have thirty five peacekeepers or pks for short in this building. They have absolute power. There will be no jail time for crimes. These pks have the right to kill on the spot. The people who have farms will have to donate them to the town.

MARK

Wait a minute. My farm was left to me by my deceased mother and father. You can't expect me to just hand it over.

CHRISTOPHER

You got the gall to be asking us that. I was born on my farm.

MAYOR

Look Chris and everyone of you. There are people that will be walking in the dark. Some of them will be up to no good. My peacekeepers will be on horses. They will be carrying flashlights and guns to make sure that you are protected. Money's no good anymore. We will have to use the bartering system. Yes Jason?

JASON

Mayor Miller what's the bartering system?

MAYOR

The bartering system is when you need something, you will have to give up something in return. In your case my office is offering you protection.

Just then David Young had made an abrupt appearance. Captain Moore approached him. Captain Moore was an ex marine. He wore a marine cut hair style. He's built like a linebacker. The mayor depended on his toughness to keep things in order.

DAVID

I need help.

CAPTAIN MOORE

What's the problem son?

DAVID

Officer Moore. My brothers and I saw a UFO come down from the sky. They all went in the direction the UFO had landed. It had landed in the forest, up around the bend. My brothers should have been back by now.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Are you sure that it wasn't Just a plane?

DAVID

Sir this plane came down without a sound coming from it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Ok David.

Captain Moore got the attention of two peacekeepers.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You two peacekeepers ride out to the forest and follow up on David's complaint. David how did you get here?

DAVID

I rode my horse sir, and my brothers rode theirs.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Look son. Your brothers are probably lying in the grass and lost track of time, since there is no way we can tell time now.

DAVID

You're probably right, Sir but will you check on them anyway?

CAPTAIN MOORE

I said I will, Son and I always keep my promises.

DAVID

Thank you, sir.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You're welcome, Son. I bet that by the time you get back to your farm your brothers will be sitting there worrying about you.

DAVID

I hope so.

David had left the Peacekeepers Station. He got back on his horse and galloped away.

EXT - THE FOREST - DAY

Daniel, Anthony and Paul were tiptoeing through the forest.

PAUL

I was sure that it went down right here.

ANTHONY

Well it's not here now.

PAUL

Wait. I here something.

They stopped walking. Some thick bushes was in front of them. Daniel had pulled some of them apart.

DANIEL

I don't believe this.

ANTHONY

What do you see?

PAUL

Let me look. This is fucking unbelievable.

ANTHONY

I bet those are the aliens
That caused all of this.

DANIEL

If we shoot them we'll be heroes.

PAUL

I got a clear shot. Hand me my rifle.

Anthony took Paul's rifle off of his horse and handed it to him. Paul took careful aim while his other two brothers watched.

ANTHONY

Shoot Paul.

DANIEL

Waiting on you Paul.

PAUL

What's wrong with my finger?
I can't pull the trigger.

ANTHONY

I can't move my mouth.

PAUL

Why can't I turn my head?

DANIEL

I can't move at all.

PAUL

Hey guys I need a little help here.

ANTHONY

Will someone help me?

None of them were able to hear each other because the communication was all inside of their minds. An alien who call it's species Argolians walked over to Paul and looked straight into his eyes.

PAUL

(scared)

Noo!.. Go away ! Go away!

The Argolian started eating Paul's hands. Paul screams in his mind.

PAUL

(panicking)

Stop! Aahhh!

The Argolian ate off his arms.

Paul

(terrified)

Please God I don't want to diiiiieee! Ahhh!Stopp! Ahhh!

Paul screamed a silent scream. His brothers couldn't hear him. Anthony could see Paul being eaten alive but there was nothing he could do.

DANIEL

Leave him alone you son of a bitch. Let him go!

Another Argolian came through the bushes and looked right into Daniel's eyes.

DANIEL

Nooo!

A third Argolian came through the bushes and stared into Anthony's eyes.

ANTHONY

(scared)

What the hell! Get away from Me! Ahhh!Ughhh!

They all screamed that silent scream. Their bodies fell to the ground. Two more Argolians walked through the bushes. They walked over to the horses and stared into their eyes. They began to feed on them. The horses remained frozen until there was nothing left but their heads. After it was all over the Argolians went back to their ship. They had cloaked it so it could not be seen. They used their weapons that they carried on their side to blast tunnels against the wall of the mountain.

DAY-FOREST-DAY

Two peacekeepers had arrived at the edge of the forest on horseback. They had their two way radios on their shoulders.

PK1

Pk1 to base. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

This is base Pk1. Come in. Over.

PK1

Captain. We have just arrive at the edge of the forest. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Look Pk1. I want communications from you every five minutes. Over.

PK1

Yes sir, Captain. Over and out. Pk2 ? I see the tracks made by the horses David's brothers were on? Let's dismount and walk from here.

PK2

Sounds good to me.

PK1

We'll tie the horses up here.

PK2

Ok

PK1

I see that their tracks are leading this way. Let's follow the path.

Pk1 decided to call back to base.

PK1

Pk1 to base. Come in base.Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Come in Pk1.

Pk1

Captain we've found the tracks left by the Young Brother's horses. We're following them now. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Report back to me in five minutes. Over.

PK1

Yes sir. Over and out.

Pk2 was just up ahead. He tripped and fell.

PK2

Shit.

As he got up he turned to see what he had tripped over.

PK2

Jesus Christ!

PK1

Are you ok ?

PK2

Come over here and take a look at this.

Pk1 walked over to where Pk2 was at.

PK1

What is it ?

Pk1 looked down where Pk2 was pointing.

PK1

My God! A horse's head.Let's look around this area.

They both started kicking the leaves around.

PK1

Here's another one.

PK2

I found one more.

Pk1 called the base.

PK1

Pk1 to base. Come in base.
Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Yes Pk1. Come in.Over.

PK1

Sir, we've discovered three horses heads out here. What could have done this, Sir?
Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Do you see any signs of the Young Brothers? Over.

PK

Negative. We need backup, Sir.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Ok Pk1. Stand down. Backup is on the way. Over.

PK1

Yes sir. Over and out.

PK2

Well what did he say?

PK1

The captain is sending us some back-up.

PK2

Thank goodness for that. Let's go back to the edge of the forest and wait for them.

PK1

I'm all for that. Wait a minute! I can't move. Pk2. I need your help.

PK2

My legs won't move. I need help.

Their cries for assistance was only in their minds.

PK1

I can't move my arms.

PK2

I can't move my body.

Their silent cries for help was not being heard. The Argolians came onto the scene. Two Argolians wrapped their long arms around the peacekeepers and flew towards the tunnels that they had made.

They sealed up the entrance to the tunnels with their blasters. The ground had turned into liquid lava at the tunnel's entrance. A few minutes later it cooled. Then hardened. It matched its surroundings.

The wind blew lightly. It blew the leaves over the tunnel. The Argolians will not be disturbed while they sleep.

Ten more peacekeepers had arrived at the edge of the forest. They all dismounted and tied their horses to the trees. They followed the tracks left by the first two peacekeepers.

PK 121

I want a clean sweep of the area.

PK 09

Sir? I've found something.

Pk 121 walked over to where Pk09 was at. He took his flashlight and brushed the leaves off of the object. He jumped up.

PK 12

What the hell ? A horses head.
Any sign of the other two peacekeepers?

PK13

Sir ? I have something here.

Pk 121 walked over to where Pk 13 was at. He saw two radios on the ground, next to a horse's head.

PK 121

Something must've happened to the other two peacekeepers.
Fan out.

The other peacekeepers had spread out enough to cover a wide area. Pk 121 decided to call the base.

PK 121

Pk 121 to base. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Come in. Over.

PK 121

Sir we've found the radios on the ground next to a horse's head. I'm afraid that something had happened to the peacekeepers, Sir? There are no signs of them Anywhere. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Alright. Bring your men in.

PK 121

Yes sir. Over and out. Ok peacekeepers. We're heading back to town.

They all walked back to their horses. As the peacekeepers galloped back towards the town one of them yelled out. They all stopped.

PK 121

Who yelled out ?

PK 13

Me sir.

PK 121

Why ?

PK 13

Sir? I saw something flying towards the town.

PK 121

What did it look like?

PK 13

Like a bird of some sort, or a dragonfly, or... I can't explain it, Sir.

PK 121

Look peacekeeper. The sun got in your eyes, or maybe you're just tired.

Pk 121 turned to the other peacekeepers.

PK 121

Did any of you other peacekeepers see anything in the sky ?

They all nodded their heads signaling no.

PK 121

There you have it.

PK 13

Maybe you're right sir. Maybe it was just my imagination. Sorry, Sir.

PK 121

That's alright peacekeeper. Ok everyone. Let's ride.

They headed back towards the town.

INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Back in town Mayor Miller was organizing a strategy plan.

MAYOR

As we all know, there are no forms of communication except for CB Radios. I'm going to have my peacekeepers do a door to door call. They will work in shifts. Every eight hours you will get a visit from a peacekeeper at your door. You will answer it to let them know that you are alright. If you don't answer your door the peacekeepers have authorization from me to enter your home and do a search. I want to make sure that all of you are safe. Are there any questions?

A hand was raised.

MAYOR

Yes Chugkun?

CHUGKUN

Mr. Mayor, My family and I had just arrived here from China last month. We don't know too much about the peacekeepers. What do they look like?

MAYOR

First, I want to welcome you and your family to our town. I need a peacekeeper to come up here.

The peacekeeper that was the closet had walked up to the mayor and turned around.

MAYOR

Do you see the way he's dressed? This is the uniform that will be knocking at your door. For those who are carrying guns, do not shoot any of my peacekeepers or you will be shot yourself.

ADELRIC

Mr. Mayor?

MAYOR

Yes Adelric?

ADELRIC

I have six guns in my house.
I don't want to have any peacekeepers coming around. I can protect my own home.

MAYOR

PK25, scratch his name off of the list.

PK 25

Yes sir.

CARTER

Mr. Mayor?

MAYOR

Yes?

CARTER

We're the Evans family. How about all of us purchasing guns to protect ourselves.

MAYOR

We do have a gun store in this town. We will have to confiscate those guns.

MAN IN BACK

(angry)

Wait a minute.

MAYOR

Yes, who are you?

FOULQUES

My name is Foulques. I'm from France. I own that gun shop. I had opened the doors to the public two months ago. I had just got it off the ground. I'm not going to turn everything over to a bunch of townspeople. I'll be ruined.

MAYOR

Everyone has to give up something for our services. You are going to have to give up your guns. The safety of this town is more important. I'm going to send some peacekeepers over to your shop. You might as well show them where to go. Take what guns you would want to use. The peacekeepers will take the rest.

Other peacekeepers had entered through the door. The townspeople stepped aside to let the peacekeepers through.

MAYOR

Some of you have cars that are working. I would like for you townspeople to follow my peacekeepers to the gun shop and pick up a firearm.

THOMAS

Mayor, you can't do that. My family can use that food for ourselves since there's no more need for money.

MAYOR

Look Thomas. Everyone is going to have to chip in. We have to work as a whole. Do you understand what is happening here?

THOMAS

But my store.

MAYOR

I'm sorry Thomas. None of us asked to be in this dilemma.

Captain Moore went over to talk to pk 121.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Pk21. Let's go into my office.

They both went into the office.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Have a seat. Tell me everything.

PK21

Well captain. All that was found were the heads of the horses and two radios.

Detective Scott Wright and Detective Philip Turner had just walked into the Peacekeepers Station. They were looking kind of scruffy. They showed their badges so the people would step aside. The people started leaving the station.

Everyone got into their cars and trucks. Soon the only ones that were in the station were the peacekeepers, the mayor, Captain Moore, and Pk21. Captain Moore and Pk21 had left the office and came back to the front of the station.

MAYOR

What happened to the two of you?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Our car died out. We had to walk here.

MAYOR

Why don't you both take the rest of the day off.

Detective Wright and Detective Turner slowly turned around. Detective Wright turned back around to face the mayor.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Oh by the way. We need a lift.

MAYOR

Pk09. Get a car and take these two detectives home and tomorrow

I want you to pick them up at 0900. Capeesh?

Pk09

Yes Mayor.

INT - DETECTIVE WRIGHT'S HOME - DAY

The next morning a knock was heard at the door.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Ok, I' m coming.

He answered the door.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Oh it's you Pk9. Come in, and what time is it anyway?

PK9

It's 9 o'clock, Sir.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Have a seat.Would you like some coffee while I get dress?

PK9

No sir but just to let you know, I also have to pick up Detective Turner. We'll be running late, Sir. The mayor wouldn't like it.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Since when did the mayor get involved with police business?

PK9

When all Hell broke loose.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Ok I' m ready. Let's go.

They both stepped into the car and drove towards Detective Turner's house.

PK 9

We're lucky that this car is running. All of the other patrol cars were non-functional. The pks had to switch to horses and bikes.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

The department don't have any bikes.

PK9

The mayor had ordered Harold Sweeney who runs the bicycle shop to give up the bikes for the department.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

I know he was pissed.

PK 9

Yes Sir. He was, but he had no choice if he wanted the peacekeepers to look out for him.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

We're coming up on Detective Turner's house now. He just stays right down the street from me.

I' ll get him up.You can wait
Here.

PK 9

Yes Sir.

EXT/INT - DETECTIVE TURNER'S HOUSE - DAY

Detective Wright stepped out of the car and walked over to Detective Turner's house. He rang the doorbell.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
(talking to himself)
That's right. Without electricity the doorbell might not ring.

He knocked on the door. There was no answer. The door was unlocked.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
(talking to himself)
That's not like Turner to leave his door unlocked.

He let himself in. The house was quiet.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
Hey Turner it's me, Wright.You left your door unlocked.

Detective Wright kept on searching for Turner.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
(talking to himself)
Why is it so cold in here?

He walked into the dining room.Then the kitchen, and decided to walk upstairs to Turner's bedroom.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
(shouting)

Turner?

No answer. The bed looked as if it was slept in. Wright turned around to leave, but then he stopped.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
What the Hell?

There was a three foot hole in Turner's bedroom wall.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
(asking himself)
Now why would he put a hole in his wall like that?

He ran downstairs and out to the car.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
Let's go.

PK 9
But where's Detective Turner, Sir?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
Hell if I know. All I know is he's not in his house.

PK9
Do you suppose he got ride, Sir?
Maybe he forgot that I was going to pick him up. After all none of the phones are working.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT
You're probably right. Without any forms of communication he probably forgot we were coming.

I wonder what a three foot hole is doing in his bedroom wall?

INT - BRUCE AND KAREN'S HOME - DAY

Bruce is in his fifties. He's about six feet tall. Wears tattoos up and down both his arms. White short haircut. He's fairly muscular.

Karen is in her thirties. Short woman with large breast. She wears her hair long. Wants to be a model. They have two kids. One is a girl who's five years old and the other is a boy who is three years old.

Both of the kids were upstairs in their bed asleep.

They all live in a two bedroom townhouse condo. Karen goes upstairs to check on the two kids. They are nowhere to be found. She calls out to Bruce.

Bruce runs upstairs to see what's wrong. He sees Karen looking under the bed.

KAREN

(worried)

Where are the kids?

Bruce looks inside of the kids closet and there is a three foot hole in the wall behind their clothes.

BRUCE

There's a big hole in the kid's
Wall.

KAREN

(scared)

Someone broke in and stole our Kids? Noo! I don't believe this.

Not in this neighborhood. We got to find our kids.

BRUCE

Lets check the rest of the house before we draw any conclusions.

They checked the entire house. Bruce and Karen realizes that their kids were nowhere in the house. They ran from the house to their car and drove to the peacekeepers station.

BRUCE

(angry)

Karen, I'm going to drive around the neighborhood first so I can see if anything strange is happening. Our kids are missing and whoever took them is going to pay.

KAREN

(worried)

But why? Why Bruce? Why our kids?

BRUCE

The streets are clear except for some houses with holes in the walls. How did those holes get in those houses?

KAREN

We better tell the peacekeepers about this. Those holes look just like the one in our kids bedroom closet.

BRUCE

Where's all the people in the neighborhood. This block looks like a ghost town.

KAREN

I don't care. I want my kids.

BRUCE

I'm driving as fast as I can, Karen. Here we are now.

EXT/INT - THE PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Karen and Bruce arrives at the Peacekeepers Station. They both got out of the car. Karen couldn't wait for Bruce. She ran up the stairs, leading into the Peacekeepers Station.

KAREN

(yelling)

Help, help.

The peacekeepers came running towards her, then her husband came running in. The peacekeepers grabbed him and took him down to the floor. They pointed their guns at Bruce and told him to freeze. Bruce was too scared to do or say anything, so he just laid there on the floor.

KAREN

Stop! Stop! That's my husband.
He's with me.

PEACEKEEPER

Sorry sir. You came running in here like a wild man. We didn't know what your plans were.

KAREN

Someone had kidnapped our kids.

PEACEKEEPER

Calm down miss. You say that someone had kidnapped your kids?

BRUCE

There's a three foot hole in the wall, inside of our kids closet and our kids are missing.

Captain Moore came from around the desk.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Did you say a three foot hole?

BRUCE

Yes. A three foot hole, but the strangest thing is, on our way here, we passed through one neighborhood where there were several homes with holes in the wall. What's going on here officer?

CAPTAIN MOORE

You see that gentleman over there, behind the desk? Just go over to him and tell him your story. He'll be taking your case.

BRUCE

Thank you officer.

CAPTAIN MOORE

There's definitely something wrong here. Townspeople turning up missing without a trace.

Captain Moore walked towards the mayor's office. He knocks on the door.

MAYOR

Come in captain.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Mayor Miller. We have a serious problem in our town.

MAYOR

Explain yourself, Captain.

CAPTAIN MOORE

First we are isolated away from everyone else. Second there's missing townspeople by the dozen or more, and without a trace.

MAYOR

And what is the third?

CAPTAIN MOORE

The third is some of the people's heads are the only ones left.

MAYOR

What do that sound like to you?

CAPTAIN MOORE

It sounds like some aliens are still here.

MAYOR

Do you think that some of them were left behind?

CAPTAIN MOORE

Either that or they came back.

MAYOR

If they came back then we're fucked.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I know.

MAYOR

We have to warn the townspeople.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I'll call all the peacekeepers to return to the station.

MAYOR

What's the plan?

CAPTAIN MOORE

We'll figure that out when everyone is here.

EXT - THE TOWN OF JEFFERSON - DAY

Peacekeepers were riding horses and bikes. Some of them were in cars when their shoulder radios were announcing a message.

ANNOUNCEMENT

All peacekeepers return to the station. Code 505.

All of the peacekeepers had stopped what they were doing. They returned back to the base.

INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - NIGHT

After about forty five minutes, all of the peacekeepers were accounted for.

Detective Wright had entered.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

What is the 505 for?

CAPTAIN MOORE

Everything will be explain to you. Mr. Mayor? Would you like to explain the situation?

MAYOR

I most certainly would.

The mayor turned to face the peacekeepers.

MAYOR

I want you all to understand this. All of those aliens did not leave our planet. We need to go out there and round up all the townspeople and bring them back here. By force if necessary. Are there any questions?

A hand went up.

MAYOR

Detective Wright?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Mr. Mayor? The way the people are being kidnapped and killed, the aliens must have a weapon that we are not familiar with.

MAYOR

That do strike a problem.

Another hand was raised.

MAYOR

Yes?

PK30

I might have a solution. We could place speakers on top of the cars that are running and rig up microphones and speakers. Then we could drive through the neighborhoods announcing the emergency.

MAYOR

That is the best suggestion, yet. Everyone get a hold of some speakers and attach them to the cars.

PK19

How can we get all of the townspeople inside of this station?

MAYOR

Use the school's auditorium. That should hold everyone.

The peace keepers were all working on the sound system. They were testing it. Everything was going fine.

PK23

(shouting)

Captain Moore.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Yes?

PK 23

I have communication, Sir.

Captain Moore ran over to the radio.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Hand me the mike.

Pk 23 handed the mike to Captain Moore.

CAPTAIN MOORE

This is Peacekeepers Station, Jefferson County. Come in. This is Peacekeepers Station,
Jefferson County. Come in. Over.

A voice was heard coming from the radio.

BRASLOW

Hey guys! You're alive out there. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You're damn right we're alive. We thought we were the only ones alive. Where are you calling from? Over.

BRASLOW

Chicago, My names's Braslow. I'm a communications student at the University of Illinois. The classroom have a CB radio in it.
I'm standing by it for Communication purposes. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

That's good thinking, Braslow.
How's everything in Chicago?
Over.

BRASLOW

It's dead out here. It's like a ghost town. Every now and then, I would see several strange creatures flying by in the air. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

How many are they? Do you know? Over.

BRASLOW

There must be a lot. I'm seeing at least fifteen to twenty of them an hour. Some of them are carrying bodies. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

My God! That's probably what's happening here. Have you been able to reach anyone else? Over.

BRASLOW

No. I was lucky that I was able to reach you. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Why don't you stay put. What's your frequency. Over.

BRASLOW

Fifty two and I'm not going anywhere with those things out there. I have all the food I need right here. Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Where are the other students?

Over.

BRASLOW

They all scattered out of here to be with their families,Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Well. I'm glad you stayed.Over.

BRASLOW

I was a foster child. I didn't have a family so there was no one I had to see.Over.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I'm sorry.Over.

BRASLOW

Don't worry. I'll stay by the radio. I already have your channel. Over and out.

CAPTAIN MOORE

So there you have it. Those aliens had never left and they're multiplying.

PK11

What are we going to do?

MAYOR MILLER

We are going to do just as we had planned. Go out their and round up every citizen and bring them back here.

INT - UNDERGROUND TUNNEL - NIGHT

Deep inside of the woods of Jefferson County there lies hidden, underneath a slab of granite. A tunnel that stretches for miles in different directions. A twilight glow makes it possible to see. The source of the glow is far beyond our technology. Clicking sounds were coming from deep inside of the tunnel. Then cries for help.

INT - THE HERNANDEZ HOME - DAY

Ruth and Carl lives out in the country.

Ruth is thirty five years old. Dark hair. She wears a perm and her hair is curly. She's African American. She keeps herself well groomed. She's about 5'10" and is a beautiful woman.

Carl is an ex football player. He busted his knee while playing football. The injury forced him into retirement. He had enough money saved up to buy a country home with a sun porch that has an open view of a field of sunflowers and a heavy wooded area at least one hundred yards away from the home.

Carl is well built, with a neatly trimmed low cut Afro hairstyle. He's about 6'11" 270 lbs.

They both have a little five year old African American daughter named Samantha and Samantha has a little puppy named Putt Putt.

Samantha and her puppy were playing in the field of flowers. Ruth and Carl Hernandez were sitting at their table drinking coffee. The doorbell had rung.

RUTH

I wonder who that is?

She went to answer the door.

RUTH

(she screamed)

Tony!

Carl jumped up from the table and ran to the door.

CARL

My God. It is you.

There was a helicopter parked right in their field.

CAPTAIN BECK

Hi Sis.Hi Carl. I decided to come here to be with my sister and brother in law.

Tony Beck is an astronaut and Captain of the United States Air Force.He's a hero, after circling the globe 160 times.He became a helicopter pilot transporting soldiers on special missions.

He's African American.Slim. 6'4" tall.About 180 lbs.He was flying in an Air Force helicopter alone, on a special mission when the nukes went off.He decided to turn around to be with his sister, in case the world came to an end.

CARL

Gee Tony. I heard that you had circled the Earth over 160 times.

CAPTAIN BECK

Where's my niece,Samantha?

RUTH

She's outside playing.

Samantha was playing with her dog, Putt Putt. She have a dog whistle she uses to call her little puppy. Every time Putt Putt hears the whistle her ears stick up as though she knew it was play time. There was a lot of thick wooded areas around their ranch.

CARL

Ruth we have plenty of firewood out in the shed now.

RUTH

Thank goodness for that.No one could've predicted that our way of living would change like this.
Do you suppose that all of this will end soon?

CAPTAIN BECK

When the New World Council decided that hundreds of nuclear bombs were going to be dropped at the bottom of the oceans, around the world, I knew that something terrible was going to come out of it.

Putt Putt was playing with Samantha when suddenly she took off running towards the woods, barking.

SAMANTHA

Putt Putt come back.

Putt Putt had sensed something in the woods. She ran over to see what it was, barking all the time. Samantha heard Putt Putt barking.

SAMANTHA

(talking to herself)

She must have spotted a raccoon.

Then the barking stopped.

SAMANTHA

Putt Putt

Still there was no barking. Samantha lifted her dog whistle off from around her neck. She blew her whistle as she ran into the woods where Putt Putt had entered.

She blew her whistle again. Putt Putt started barking again. Samantha ran over to where Putt Putt was. Putt Putt was pulling at something on the ground. Samantha walked over to see what it was. She looked down.

SAMANTHA
(screaming)

Ahhhh!

Ruth, Carl, and Captain Beck had jumped up from the table and ran outside.

CARL
(shouting)

Samantha!

RUTH (shouting)

Samantha!

They ran in the direction from where it came.

CARL
She's in the woods.

CAPTAIN BECK
(shouting)

Samantha!

Putt Putt started barking. She ran towards Ruth and Carl.

CARL
Putt Putt where's Samantha?

Putt Putt ran further into the woods. Ruth, Carl, and Captain Beck followed. There was an opening in the woods. Samantha was laying on the ground. She had fainted. Ruth ran over to Samantha.

RUTH (scared)

Samantha!

Carl and Captain Beck had turned around to see what Putt Putt was barking at.

CARL
Jesus Christ! What the hell is that?

CAPTAIN BECK
It's one of them.

Ruth held Samantha in her arms and started to walk over to Carl and Captain Beck.

SAMANTHA
No momma. I don't want to go.

RUTH
What are you so afraid of dear?

Ruth left Samantha over by the tree. She then walked over to where Carl and Captain Beck was standing.

RUTH
What is it Tony?

Ruth looked down.

RUTH (screamed) Ahhh!

CARL

You see Ruth? It's one of them.

RUTH

Is that one of the things that caused all of this?

CAPTAIN BECK

Yes, Ruth. That's one of them.

RUTH

What's that on its side?

CAPTAIN BECK

A weapon of some sort. I'm going to try and remove it.

Captain Beck bent down to take off the weapon. He couldn't find the catch.

CAPTAIN BECK

There must be some kind of lever or a catch somewhere.

Captain Beck kept on running his fingers around the weapon holder. The weapon had unhinged itself. He was now holding it.

CARL

We got to get to the Peacekeepers Station.

RUTH

What are we going to do with that creature?

CARL

Leave it here. We'll come back with the peacekeepers. They'll know what to do.

RUTH

I'll take Sam back to the house.

CAPTAIN BECK

I'll be along in a minute.

RUTH

(concerned)

No Tony. You and Carl are coming with us right now. We don't know how long that creature is going to remain that way.

CAPTAIN BECK

You know something, Carl? Your wife have a point. My sister have always been the bossy type in the family.

CARL

Ok. We'll go with you. Let's hurry. I want the peacekeepers to see this.

They walked hurriedly out of the woods and straight to the car.

CAPTAIN BECK

I have a faster way.

They all turned to look at the helicopter out in the field. They got into the helicopter and quickly took off.

SAMANTHA

Daddy I'm scared.

CARL

Don't worry honey. Everything's going to be alright.

RUTH

Do you really believe that, Carl?

CARL

(Talking quietly)

Look Ruth. What else do you want me to tell her. Look at her. She's scared to death.

RUTH

I'm sorry, Honey. I'm just so confused about all of this.

CARL

I am too, Ruth. We don't know how many of those things are out there. Ok. The Peacekeepers Station is right down there Tony.

EXT/INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Captain Beck landed the helicopter in the street. Right in front of the Peacekeepers Station. They all stepped out of the helicopter and ran inside.

A lot of townspeople were there with the peacekeepers. So was the mayor. Carl saw Captain Moore.

CARL

(excited)

Captain Moore?

Everyone had turned around at the sound of the outburst. They saw a man dressed in an Air Force uniform. They also saw Ruth and

CARL

We got one.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Calm down, Carl. Just what do you have?

CAPTAIN BECK

I'm Captain Beck. United States Air Force, or what's left of it. We have one of them alien creatures out in a field.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You're the astronaut who flew a rocket around the world 160 times.

Captain Beck

Yes. That's me.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Well Captain Beck, I'm Captain Moore. Jefferson County police, and we can use all the help we can get. So you have one of the aliens in a field?

CAPTAIN BECK

Yes. My niece, Samantha had found it laying in the field.

CAPTAIN MOORE

How did you survive to tell me this?

CARL

It was already laying on the ground in the woods. My daughters puppy, Putt Putt found it lying there.

CAPTAIN MOORE

What did it look like?

CARL

It's the ugliest thing I had ever seen. It looks like it could be about nine or ten feet tall. It's hard to tell while it's laying down, but that's my best guest.

MAYOR MILLER

Ok we've got our first break.

CAPTAIN MOORE

What do you mean, Mayor?

MAYOR

Think about it. You peacekeepers can get a pick-up truck. Go back to the farm. Tie that creature up and bring it back here and lock it up.

CAPTAIN BECK

I have a helicopter right outside. We can tie it up and I'll fly it back here.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You mean you have a helicopter?

CAPTAIN BECK

Yes I do.

CAPTAIN MOORE

That will do fine. Lets fly out there with a tarp to wrap it with, and a rope to tie it up.

CARL

What will happen if it wakes up while we are tying it up?

CAPTAIN MOORE

Then we'll shoot it.

Peacekeeper

How do you know if our guns will even have an effect on it?

CAPTAIN BECK

I have it's weapon.

Captain Beck took out the weapon from his inside pocket and showed it to the mayor and Captain Moore.

MAYOR MILLER

What the hell is that, and where did you get it?

CAPTAIN BECK

I took it from the creature's side.

MAYOR MILLER

Did you figure out how to work it?

CAPTAIN BECK

I didn't want to fool around with it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Let me see it.

Captain Beck handed the weapon over to Captain Moore. Captain Moore looked at it. He turned it around in his hands. The mayor asked to see it. Captain Moore handed it over to the mayor.

MAYOR MILLER

There's no trigger Mechanism .
How does it work?

CAPTAIN MOORE

What about those symbols?

The mayor started running his fingers around the symbols.

CAPTAIN BECK

Mr. Mayor? I wouldn't mess around with that until we have a secured environment.

The mayor was too focused on the symbols. He rubbed his fingers on a symbol and the weapon went off. Pk26 was in the line of fire.

A ray had shot off and went right through the middle part of his body. His legs fell to the floor, and his head, from the neck up fell on top of his legs.

The legs started twitching. The eyes started blinking while the mouth was opening and closing as though it was trying to talk.

A moment later the eyes stopped blinking and just stared. The legs had stopped twitching and the mouth remained opened.

Captain Beck snatched the weapon from Mayor Miller. There were screams. Everyone ran over to where Pk26 remained. Some ran away from the scene. Some had panicked.

A VOICE

How can we fight against creatures with weapons like that?

The mayor just looked down at the damage he had caused.

MAYOR MILLER

Captain Moore? I don't know what to say. I'm going back to my office. You handle everything.

The mayor just lowered his head, and walked away. The townspeople were too much in shock to cast any blame. They just watched the mayor leave. Someone had yelled out.

VOICE IN CROWD

We can't blame the mayor for what just happened. Any one of us could have made that same mistake.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We're not blaming him.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We'll give him a decent burial.

The Peacekeepers gathered around the remains of Pk26. Captain Beck placed a sheet on top of him, and rolled his head and legs into it. They went outside to bury him.

While the Peacekeepers were outside, the townspeople continued arguing with Captain Moore.

TOM

What are you going to do about that weapon?

CAPTAIN MOORE

First of all, I'm going to lock it up until we can figure out how it works. Will you hand over that weapon, Captain?

Captain Beck handed the weapon over to Captain Moore.

CAPTAIN BECK

Be careful with it. The mayor had just rubbed one of those symbols and that's when it went off.

CAPTAIN MOORE

This could be just the weapon we need to fight back.

CAPTAIN BECK

You've got a point Captain.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I think we should get over to Carl's place and pick up that creature.

The townspeople ran to their cars. Those who didn't have cars rode with other townspeople. They took off towards Carl's farm.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Lets hurry up and get to Carl's place before the townspeople do.

Captain Beck, Captain Moore, and Carl left for the helicopter and flew off.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I'm glad we have this helicopter. Those townspeople will try and capture the creature without giving it a second thought.

CAPTAIN BECK

And they would probably die doing it.

The women had stayed behind with some other peacekeepers. They had stepped back to allow the men to do what they felt was necessary to do.

GINA

Glory be Katherine. Do you suppose that those aliens will try to find their missing comrade?

KATHERINE

I hope not.

Some of the townspeople had stopped over to the liquor store to grab some beer.

MARK

Now we really are ready to kick some alien ass.

JOSEPH

Yea. I'm going to cook me some ET for dinner tonight.

EXT - CARL AND RUTH'S FARM - DAY

The helicopter landed on top of Carl's field. They all stepped out of it.

CARL

It's right behind that tree.

They all walked slowly. There was a figure on the ground. Half covered with leaves. They walked over to it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Jesus Christ! Is it dead?

CAPTAIN BECK

I put my ears to its chest and heard a heartbeat.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Hurry up and tie this creature up.

Captain Moore tried to put handcuffs around the creatures wrist but couldn't.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You know something? These handcuffs won't fit.

CAPTAIN BECK

Lets try this rope.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Good. Hurry up before those townspeople arrive.

They started wrapping the alien up as though they were in a rodeo. Captain Beck tied the other end of the rope to the bottom of the helicopter.

CAPTAIN BECK

Ok, I'm ready. We should go.

They all stepped back inside of the helicopter and took off. The townspeople had arrived five minutes later. Drunk and yelling.

Harris acted as the leader of the bunch.

HARRIS

Over here. The tracks lead this way.

The townspeople started yelling.

MARTIN

It's on now.

Carlos

I'm taking my rifle just in case.

TAYLOR

I think we all better take our guns.

Everyone had grabbed their guns out of their vehicles.

HARRIS

Let's go.

They all went into the woods drunk and yelling.

Carlos

I can see some tracks. They lead this way.

They all followed in the direction the tracks lead.

TAYLOR

Right here. There seems to be more than one set of tracks here.

Everyone started walking around the area.

THOMPSON

Maybe it just got up and left.

HARRIS

Damn it. I knew it was too good to be true. Let's get out of here.

Carlos

Wait a minute.

Everyone had turned around to look at Carlos. He had a rope in his hand.

Carlos

Something strange is going On. This rope was cut. It was laying right over here. Why would anyone have a rope at the scene where the creature was?

HARRIS

Everyone fan out.

They all started walking in different directions.

THOMSON

Hey. Over here.

They all ran over to where Thomson was. He pointed down at the ground.

TAYLOR

Look at this. These thick lines.
It was that helicopter that was parked outside of the Peacekeepers Station. Maybe the Peacekeepers were here and beat us to the punch.

HARRIS

They're probably back at the Peacekeepers Station.

Carlos

The party's back on.

They all went back to their cars and sped off in the direction of the Peacekeepers Station.

INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Some of the peacekeepers were at the station keeping the women and children calm.

KIMBERLY

The government knew that aliens had been landing here for a long time. Why had they been lying to us all this time?

PK61

We were all on a need to know bases.

CHICKA

I suppose area 51 was a lie too. Right?

PK61

Everything on that side of the country is underwater as far as I was told.

ABENA

Why did the New World Council agree to this destruction?

PK 61

I don't think they knew all of this was going to happen.

The door flew open.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Everyone stand back.

Captain Moore, Captain Beck, and Carl, were carrying something huge into the station.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Take it straight back to the cells.

They all rushed towards the back of the station. The mayor came out of his office.

MAYOR

What's going on?

CAPTAIN MOORE

We've captured one of them.

MAYOR

One of what?

CAPTAIN BECK

We have one of those aliens.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Put it in here. We have a video camera overhead. It can be monitored from out there. Bring that alien weapon over here and watch how you handle it. The rest of you keep your guns trained on that alien while we untie it.

Pk61 left to get the alien weapon. The rest of the peacekeepers trained their weapons on the alien.

PK61

I have it, Captain.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Mr. Mayor. Will you come over here?

The mayor walked over to Captain Moore.

MAYOR MILLER

I don't feel like much of a mayor anymore.

CAPTAIN BECK

Look Mayor Miller. What happened out there could've happened to anyone. Even me. Right now I want you to carefully point to the symbol that made the weapon go off. You don't have to touch it.
Just point to it.

MAYOR MILLER

It was this symbol.

CAPTAIN BECK

What exactly did you do?

MAYOR MILLER

I just applied some pressure on that symbol.

CAPTAIN BECK

Don't untie that creature until I get back.

INT/EXT - OUTSIDE - DAY

townspeople arrived from Carl's place. He went over by a tree and pointed the weapon at it.

The rest of the townspeople had jumped out of their cars and trucks. Still drunk and yelling.

HARRIS

That's the Air Force guy over there. He's the one that have the alien.

THOMSON

They probably have it inside.

HARRIS

It's up to us to take matters into our own hands.

Carlos

Let's go in and drag that creature out here and burn it.

TAYLOR

We'll need some leverage. Let's grab that Air Force guy over there and hold him hostage until they turn over that alien.

They all walked over to where Captain Beck was standing. All of them were carrying their guns.

Captain Beck didn't acknowledge their presence. He kept focusing on that tree.

As the townspeople came nearer the weapon that Captain Beck was holding had shot off a ray that blasted the tree in half. The tree fell to the ground smoking. Captain Beck had turned around.

CAPTAIN BECK

Oh! I didn't see you standing there. Did you all want something?

The townspeople looked at Captain Beck with their mouths frozen opened. Harris yelled out.

HARRIS

Hell no.

They ran in all directions.

CAPTAIN BECK

(Talking to himself)

I guess it wasn't important.

EXT/INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Captain Beck went back into the station. The women and children were all calm. Pk61 had done a good job answering all of their questions. Captain Beck went straight towards the back.

CAPTAIN BECK

Ok. I've figured it out. You can untie those ropes now.

The peacekeepers unwrapped the tarp and cut loose the ropes. The alien was still not moving.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Ok. Everyone out.

Everyone left the cell. Captain Moore had used a cell with a steel door that was two inches thick. It had a bulletproof window on it that was also two inches thick. They all went back to the front of the station.

CAPTAIN BECK

Now this is what I call close encounters of the third kind.

Captain Moore sat behind his desk and turned on the monitor. It showed that the alien was still not moving.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We can keep an eye on it from here.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Captain Beck? What are we going to do with it?

CAPTAIN BECK

We will have to figure out how to deal with it's kind. If we don't they will be the new dominant species on our planet.

Ruth and Carl was sitting out in front of the peacekeepers station. Ruth was holding Samantha and Samantha was playing with Putt Putt, while blowing on her dog whistle.

She likes to make Putt Putt's ears go up. Putt Putt likes it too.

RUTH

Samantha. I have some sandwiches in my purse. I want you to stop Playing with Putt Putt for a While and eat.ok?

SAMANTHA

Ok, Momma.

Samantha dropped the whistle from her mouth. The whistle was hanging from a thin chain around Samantha's neck.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Ok.What do we have at the moment?

CAPTAIN BECK

Well Captain. We have an alien weapon, and I must say a very powerful weapon it is too. I blew a tree in half with it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

An army with weapons like that can rule the world and since those alien creatures are armed with weapons like that we don't stand a chance.

PK 61

Maybe if we do an autopsy on that alien, we might find out something.

CAPTAIN MOORE

The alien is still alive. It have to be dead in order to do an autopsy.

TOWNSMAN

Well let's kill it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I don't want anything to happen to this creature. A lot of our townspeople are missing. This creature might be just what we need to bargain with in order to get people back.

ANOTHER TOWNSMAN

They might already be dead.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Probably so, but until I have proof, I'm going to give them every chance they need.

CAPTAIN BECK

Captain Moore. Look!

They all looked at the monitor. The alien creature was flying around the room bumping into the walls as though it was trying to find a way out.

Carl, Ruth, Samantha, and the rest of the townspeople were trying to look at the monitor. The captain turned the monitor around so they all could see.

RUTH

Oh My! That is the most scariest creature I've ever seen.

CARL

Look at the wing spread. The wings must be at least six feet in length.

Putt Putt jumped out of Samantha's arms.

SAMANTHA

Putt Putt. Come back. Momma let go of my arm. I need my whistle to call Putt Putt.

Ruth let go of Samantha's arm, all while looking at the monitor. Samantha blew her whistle, and the creature inside of the cell fell to the floor.

Putt Putt came back and jumped into Samantha's arms. Everyone turned around to look at Samantha.

Samantha was sitting down in one of the chairs holding her puppy.

SAMANTHA

Now Putt Putt. You know better than to jump out of my arms when we are so high up. You might break your legs.

CAPTAIN BECK

Ruth. Will you call Samantha over here? I would just like to asked her a few questions.

RUTH

Sure Tony. Samantha dear? Will you come here for a minute?

SAMANTHA

Ok, Momma.

Samantha grabbed Putt Putt and placed the puppy in her arms. She walked slowly towards the center of the station. She walked up the stairs and through the crowd of people.

Captain Beck reached down to pick up Samantha and her little puppy and placed them both on Captain Moore's desk.

CAPTAIN BECK

Samantha. Can I ask you a few questions.

SAMANTHA

Sure Uncle Tony. What do you want to know?

CAPTAIN BECK

Samantha. You was in the field playing with Putt Putt. Right?

SAMANTHA

Yes.

CAPTAIN BECK

Samantha. Can you tell me what happened?

SAMANTHA

Well. Me and Putt Putt was playing, and then Putt Putt heard something.
She ran into the woods, barking.
I ran after her. That's when I blew my whistle. I saw Putt Putt barking that monster.

CAPTAIN BECK

Samantha. Can I borrow your whistle for awhile. I want to try an experiment on that monster.

SAMANTHA

But what if Putt Putt gets away?

CAPTAIN MOORE

I have something for Putt Putt.

Captain Moore reach into his drawer and pulled out a leash.

CAPTAIN MOORE

This leash is for our peacekeeper dogs.

Captain Moore took out a pair of scissors and cut the leash so it could fit around Putt Putt's neck.

CAPTAIN MOORE

This is for Putt Putt. He is now our new peacekeeper dog.

He placed the leash around Putt Putt's neck and the other end he gave to Samantha.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You hold on to this Samantha and Putt Putt will never get away.

SAMANTHA

Wow! Look Momma. Putt Putt is a peacekeeper dog.Come on Putt Putt.

Captain Beck put Samantha down on the floor, along with Putt Putt. Putt Putt ran while Samantha was holding onto the leash.

SAMANTHA
(laughing)

Ha ha ha ha.

Putt Putt pulled Samantha over to a six year old Mexican girl whose name was Abiena. Putt Putt knew her too, and he liked her.

SAMANTHA
Come on Abiena. Let's play with Putt Putt.

ABIENA
Momma. Can I go?

ABIENA'S MOTHER
Go ahead, Honey.Don't go far.

They both ran around the Peacekeepers Station, playing with Putt Putt.

CAPTAIN BECK
Now, if what I suspect is true, then we might be able to beat those aliens at their own game and maybe.Just maybe. Mankind will survive.

CAPTAIN MOORE
What do you mean?

CAPTAIN BECK
I don't want to say it too soon.
Just let me know when that alien gets up again.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Hey Captain Beck. You're on to something. I know.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Come on Captain Beck. Let us in on it.

CAPTAIN BECK

I can't. Not now.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Pk61. Get on the radio and call that kid in Chicago.

PK61

Sure will, captain.

INT - CHICAGO - UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS - DAY

Braslow was standing by the radio.

BRASLOW

(talking to himself)

God. I'm so hungry. I ran out of food, and if I stay here and hide I'll starve to death. I'll just slip down those stairs. I can enter into the cafeteria through the back entrance.

Braslow tiptoed down the stairwell. He passed the second floor.

BRASLOW

It's so quiet.

He tiptoed down the first floor. He opened the hallway door and peeked out through it, into the hallway.

BRASLOW

So far, so good.

He listened. He crept. No sound at all. He saw the cafeteria straight ahead. He walked quietly towards it.

BRASLOW

I made it.

He opened the door and crept inside. There was food still behind the counter.

BRASLOW

I can load up on all of this.
This should last me a good while.

He reached for a sweet roll.

BRASLOW

What's wrong with my arm? I can't move it. I can't move my mouth. What's happening?

All of his questions were in his mind. His questions were answered.

BRASLOW

What is that ? Stay away! No!
Nooo! Stay away!

His cries could not be heard. The creature started eating at his waist. Then it stopped, and switched to his arms. It had stopped midway up his arms to start eating on his ears and nose.

BRASLOW

Ah!

Braslow cried inside of his mind. He fell to the floor while the Argolian continued eating him up alive.

Back inside of the communication room of the university, a CB Radio was sounding off. The microphone was left on.

VOICE ON RADIO

This is the Jefferson County
Peacekeepers Station calling Braslow.Over. This is the Jefferson County Peacekeepers Station, calling Braslow.Over.

An Argolian slowly crept up to the sound of the radio making clicking and grunting sounds near the microphone.

EXT - STREETS OF CHICAGO - DAY

More Argolians were walking the streets of Chicago. On 75th street and Cottage Grove, an Argolian was dragging a helpless human under its arms. The human was in a frozen state.

Three more Argolians were walking across the street dragging humans under their arms. Some of the humans had no arms. Some had no lower parts of their bodies.

The Argolians are not known for releasing their mind hold on their prey. They like to sense their prey's suffering.

On Martin Luther King Dr. the streets were crawling with Argolians. Some were carrying human heads. Some were carrying children's bodies. Half eaten.

The more the Argolians eat the more they reproduce.

EXT - NORTH SIDE OF CHICAGO - DAY

On Fullerton street, Argolians were flying around, in between buildings. Crawling up the building walls like locust.

Inside of one building, a group of college students had barricaded themselves into one room. Tony, Bridget, Mecka, Janice, and Erron were huddled together.

ERRON

This just can't be the end of the human race.

Tony was looking out of the window.

TONY

Look at them. They're all over the place.

JANICE

Get down Tony before they see you.

MECKA

It wasn't that many of them a few days ago. Where did they all come from?

TONY

I saw one of them carrying a body down the side of a building.

MECKA

I'm so scared.

ERRON

We've been here for three days now.
We haven't eaten anything and yet if we go out, they'll catch us.

JANICE

If we stay here we'll starve to death.

TONY

So we have a choice. We stay and starve or we try and make it to some food, but risk getting eaten by those things.

BRIDGET

It looks like we're going to die anyway. All we have to do is choose how.

JANICE

Yea. What a choice to make.

TONY

Well. I'm not moving.

JANICE

Me neither.

ERRON

I can't stay here.

BRIDGET

I'm going with Erron.

MECKA

I'm starving, but I'm too afraid to be captured by those things.

ERRON

Good luck, Guys.

BRIDGET

Wait up.

They both left.

TONY

I don't know what else to do.

MECKA

I don't want to die like this.

JANICE

Maybe someone will come to help us.

TONY

I doubt it. You should see those things out there. They're everywhere. Almost everyone of them are carrying a human body.

Janice crawled over to the window to take a peak.

JANICE

Oh my God! We're going to die for sure.

Mecka crawled over to the window. She raised up her head. She stood up holding her head shouting.

MECKA

(shouting)

No ! no !

Tony pulled her down to the floor.

TONY

Get down. You're going to get us all killed.

JANICE

Do you think they saw her?

TONY

I hope not.

Mecka was on the floor. Crying.

JANICE

Tony do you suppose they made it?
Tony? Tony? Why isn't he answering Me?

Tony sat looking at the floor.

TONY

I can't raise my head. What's going on?

MECKA

I want to wipe my eyes, but I can't move my arms. What's wrong with me?

Suddenly a figure slowly crept through the door. Janice saw the creature coming towards her.

JANICE

(shouting)

Nooooo! Noooo! Noooo! Ahhhh!

She screamed inside of her mind. The Argolian started eating on her left leg as she remained in a frozen state.

The left leg came off. The Argolian started eating her right arm. The arm came off. The Argolian picked her up and carried her out of the room leaving a trail of blood.

Janice screamed a scream of torture, inside of her mind as the creature left with her under it's arms. Tony and Mecka became unfrozen.

TONY

(talking loud)

That's it. I'm leaving. I saw that thing coming out of the corner of my eye. I saw it eating on Janice, without her making a sound. How can that be?

Mecka

Look at all the blood .I couldn't see anything. All I could hear was this strange sucking and clicking sound.

TONY

I want to leave this place. That creature knows where we are now. Let's get out of here.

Tony and Mecka left the room. They walked down the corridor. There was a trail of blood all down the hall.

MECKA

Should we take the elevator or the stairs?

TONY

I don't know. If we take the elevator, it might attract them from the sound of the bell going off. Let's take the stairs.

MECKA

Ok.

INT - THE STAIRWELL - DAY

They walked over to the stairwell. Tony opened the door. As they started walking down the stairs Mecka had slipped. Tony picked her up. He looked down and saw blood all down the stairs. He saw a ripped up shirt.

TONY

This looks like Erron's shirt.

They kept on walking down the stairs when Mecka had picked up a piece of material.

MECKA

Oh my God! This looks like Janice's blouse. I can't take this anymore.

Mecka ran down the stairs.

TONY

Mecka don't !

Mecka had panicked. There was no stopping her now. She ran to the first floor and out the door into the street.

EXT - THE STREET- DAY

As Mecka was running. She slowed down to a stop.

MECKA

Why did I stop? I gotta get out of here. I can't move my legs.
Please God! I can't move my legs.
Help me. Please.

She was frozen, and her face was looking straight ahead. Three Argolians had dropped right in front of her.

MECKA

(screaming)

Nooo! Noooooo! Noooooo!

She screamed inside of her mind. They crept closer.

MECKA

(shouting in her mind)

Stop! Stop! Stay back !

They lifted up her arms and legs. Each Argolian had a part of her body inside of their mouths. Mecka screamed a torturous scream, but it was a silent scream, as the Argolians ate her up alive.

INT - THE BUILDING - DAY

Tony saw through a window where the view was out to the street. He saw Mecka running, and then she stopped. He saw the creatures eat her up alive where she stood. They left nothing to mourn over.

TONY

What a horrible way to go.

Tony heard a clicking sound. He turned around and was face to face with an Argolian. He couldn't move.

The Argolian picked up Tony like he was a baby. Placed him under its arms, and carried him away. Tony screamed inside of his head.

TONY

(screaming in his mind)

Nooooooo!

INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Back in Jefferson County at the Peacekeepers Station. Captain Moore was getting a response from Pk61 about the radio contact with Chicago.

PK61

Sir. I've tried to contact Braslow in Chicago but all I'm getting is a clicking sound from the other end.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You couldn't make out anything else?

PK61

Nothing sir although it did sound like some kind of grunting.

CAPTAIN BECK

Grunting?

PK61

Yes, Sir.

CAPTAIN BECK

What did the grunting sound like?

PK61

It sounded like a dog, Sir. I know it doesn't make any sense so I figured that maybe a dog had gotten into the place.

CAPTAIN BECK

I have a strange feeling about the state Chicago is in.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Why's that, Captain?

CAPTAIN BECK

Chicago is a big city, and if those creatures are multiplying as fast as they eat, then Chicago will probably be overrun by them now. Captain. I've studied on sound frequency.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Well. What about it?

CAPTAIN BECK

The range of human hearing is 20 to 20,000 hertz. A dog's hearing is 16 to 22,000 Hz.

CAPTAIN MOORE

So what about it?

CAPTAIN BECK

The number of vibrations that are produced per second is called frequency. Frequency varies for each sound and is measured in hertz. A sound with a low frequency will have a low pitch, such as a human heartbeat. A sound with a high frequency will have a high pitch such as a dog whistle.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You really do know a lot about sound, Captain Beck. So how do you propose we make the sound of this dog whistle loud enough for those creatures to hear outside?

CAPTAIN BECK

We can get a frequency converter.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

There's some at Bob's Electrical Shack.

CAPTAIN BECK

Good. You have speakers on top of cars. All we have to do is increase the frequency by using a converter and attaching it to the speakers.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Do you think that will work?

CAPTAIN BECK

If we have to, we can connect the converter to an equalizer and turn Up the volume.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Will we be able to hear it?

CAPTAIN BECK

We won't hear it but those aliens will. We can use the creature inside of the cell as an experiment.

CAPTAIN MOORE

It's angry in there now. Look at the way it's running against the walls. I hope those walls hold.

CAPTAIN BECK

If this dog whistle, which probably has a range of 16000 to 22,000 Hz can knock that creature out, maybe we can see what 75,000hz will do to it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I would like you, Pk61, and Detective Wright to go over to Bob's Electrical Shack and bring back all the converters that you can find.

Captain Beck looked at the monitor. The creature was just walking around in the cell making clicking sounds. Captain Beck just stared at it.

CAPTAIN BECK

We'll make some use out of you yet.

EXT - DOWNTOWN JEFFERSON - DAY

Pk61 and Detective Wright went to downtown Jefferson County.

PK 61

I'm glad we were able to get that open back wagon.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Yea those horses came in handy.

PK 61

We're lucky that some of the vehicles were still working. I always thought that when a nuclear bomb goes off all electrical power will cease.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

I did too. I guess they didn't take it into account that when a nuclear explosion occurs under the ocean the water would muffle the effects of it.

PK 61

What I want to know is how could those creatures get to the Townspeople without anyone hearing anything?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

There's Bob's Electrical Shack.

Pk 61 guided the horses over in front of Bob's Electrical Shack.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Bob had locked up his store to go be with his family in Texas. I don't think we'll see Bob anymore.

Detective Wright broke the window. Reached his hand around the door and turned the latch. The door opened. They went in.

PK 61

What do a converter look like?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

I'll show you when I see it. Look for something that looks like a recorder and let me know.

They both searched in different directions.

PK 61

Is it this one?

Detective Wright took a look at it.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Nope, but you're close.

PK61

How about this one?

Detective Wright took a look at it.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

That's the one. Grab all of those boxes on the bottom shelf and load up the wagon. Over there are the equalizers. Grab those too.

They both loaded up the boxes onto the wagon.

PK 61

I'll be right back.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Where are you going?

PK 61

I got to take a leak.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Well hurry up.

Pk61 went back into the shack. He went into the back where the bathroom was located. He walked over to the urinal.

PK 61

(talking to himself)

Why is it so drafty in here.

Pk61 looked around the washroom while his body was facing the urinal.

PK 61

What is a hole doing inside the washroom wall? I better hurry up. I can't zip up my pants. I can't turn my head. What's wrong with me?

He saw why.

PK 61

(Screaming)

Oh no! stop! Stop!

Pk61 urinated on himself. The creature walked slowly towards him.

PK 61

Please nooo!

Know one could hear his cries, because it was all in his mind.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

(Talking to himself)

What's keeping Pk 61.

Detective Wright was wiping the sweat off of his face while looking up at the sky.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Oh shit! My God! Help us all!

He saw a creature flying off with Pk 61. Hanging limp under its wings. There was no sound coming from him. No fighting. He was just limp, as the creature flew away with him. Detective Wright decided to hurry up and get out of there.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Giddy up.

The horses galloped as fast as they could.

INT - PEACEKEEPERS STATION - DAY

Captain Beck was looking at the monitor. The creature was just standing there.

Every once in awhile it would spread its wings. Then it would let its wings relax. It would walk around in the cell. Then it would just stop and stare at the wall.

It still made those clicking and grunting sounds. The townspeople were fixated on the monitor.

ONE TOWNSPERSON

If those things ever take over the earth, mankind will have to go into hiding.

2ND TOWNSPERSON

All they need us for is food.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Ok. Enough of that. You're scaring the women and children.

Suddenly the door burst open.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Ok Captain. I have everything you need. I just need some help unloading this equipment.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Where's Pk 61?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

He's gone sir. A creature carried him off.

CAPTAIN BECK

Get that equipment in here fast and bring me a speaker. I'll hook it up.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Captain Beck? You can use the room in the back.

They all took the equipment inside of the room Captain Moore had chosen.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Detective Wright? Will you come here?

Detective Wright walked up to where Captain Moore was at.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Look Detective Wright. You are the only detective in the whole county.
We are going to have to disregard all rank.

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

I just want to help, anyway I can.
Just tell me what you want and I'll do it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Thanks Detective.

The door to the other room had opened.

CAPTAIN BECK

It's ready.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Bring it over here, and you can explain to the people what you are about to do.

The townspeople all stopped what they were doing and turned around to look at Captain Beck.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Captain Beck here has a plan. Go ahead Captain.

CAPTAIN BECK

We have a speaker inside of the cell where the creature is. We can listen to the sounds it makes. I'm going to try a little experiment.

Captain Beck had taken the microphone off of Captain Moore's desk and placed it on the microphone stand. A speaker was brought over and placed on the table.

The microphone was lowered in front of the speaker. The converter was placed next to the equalizer. They were both connected to each other.

CAPTAIN BECK

Now watch the monitor.

The creature was just standing there. Captain Beck turned on the converter and then the equalizer. The converter was set at 16,000 Hz. The creature was still standing there.

Captain Beck turned up the volume on the equalizer. There was no sound coming from the speaker. He turned the converter up to 18000 hz. The creature had lifted its wings and started walking around.

Captain Beck turned the converter up to 19,000 Hz. The creature started flying around and bumping into the walls, making loud clicking and grunting sounds.

Captain Beck turned the converter up to 22,000hz. The creature let out a horrible roar and fell to the ground still.

Captain Beck decided to turned the converter up to 75,000hz. The creature jerked and it's head exploded. Green ooze was all on the walls. It's body started shriveling up.

Green ooze was coming out of its fingertips. It' s chest opened up and green ooze had poured out. The body of the alien started smoking. The alien was dead.

Everyone was startled at the scene on the monitor.

SAMANTHA

What happened to the monster, Momma?

RUTH

It's dead, Sweetheart.

CARL

Tony. You did it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Captain Beck did it.

Everyone cheered for Captain Beck.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We have an air raid siren to warn us in case there is a tornado coming. Captain Beck? Do you think you could rig up the siren to the converter?

CAPTAIN BECK

I can do that. We have to turn the speakers up high once we are outside.

PK 25

The vehicles are ready.

CAPTAIN BECK

I'm going to take one of the vehicles and leave to rig up the siren. I'm going to need some help though.

PK 25

I'll go with you.

They both left.

CAPTAIN BECK

Are there any trailer homes or motorhomes that are working?

CAPTAIN MOORE

Where are you going with this, Captain?

CAPTAIN BECK

We are going to have to give the human race a chance. Those Creatures are everywhere.

CAPTAIN MOORE

How are we going to do that?

CAPTAIN BECK

We could take the remaining townsfolk and load them up into trailer homes and motorhomes.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I can see where you are going with this. We can collect more vehicles as we pass through those towns and Cities.

CAPTAIN BECK

Correct. We will be in the position to collect the remaining humans that are alive. We could destroy every alien within the range of the sound as we pass through.

CAPTAIN MOORE

That's a big task but it's a worthwhile task.

Captain Beck left the station and Captain Moore turned towards the townspeople.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Can I have everyone's attention? We have a plan that will give us a fighting chance. Captain Beck is going over to where our tornado siren is located and hook up the converter to it.

Thirty minutes later Captain Beck and Pk25 had entered the station.

CAPTAIN BECK

It's ready and has been turned on.

WOMAN

I don't hear anything.

CAPTAIN BECK

You're not supposed to hear anything.

Suddenly a loud sound was heard. Something had fallen in front of the Peacekeepers Station. The peacekeepers went to see what it was.

PK 23

Captain? Here is the answer to our prayers.

They all ran to the door and looked out. A creature was laying on the ground oozing green liquid and its body was smoking. It then shriveled up.

Another one dropped right beside it. Something had hit the roof of the Peacekeepers Station. Then another one.

WOMAN (screaming)

Ahhh!

CAPTAIN BECK
It's ok. This is what I had expected.

One of the peacekeepers went up to the top floor to look out over the roof. He yelled out.

PEACEKEEPER
Hey Captain. You gotta see this.

Captain Moore and the townspeople all ran to the top of the station. They all gathered to look out the window.

There were creatures everywhere. Hanging from trees. Hanging out of stores and homes. They were on lawns and rooftops.

LARRY
Where did they all come from?

PK25
It looks like they reproduce at an alarming rate. Look at the sky.

They all looked up. The creatures were crashing into each other. Exploding while in mid - flight, and falling.

Some had crashed into homes and splattered into green ooze. The streets were covered with the stuff.

EXT - THE FOREST - DAY

A spaceship had left the ground and took off towards space. As it got higher it started to zig zag. Then it fell to the ground and exploded.

Where the spaceship had left sounds of yelling were heard.

CAPTAIN BECK

Get me a pair of binoculars.

PK 25

I have a pair with me.

Pk25 handed the binoculars to Captain Beck. He placed them up against his face.

CAPTAIN BECK

My God!

CAPTAIN MOORE

What do you see, Captain?

CAPTAIN BECK

I can see your townspeople running out of the area where the spaceship had left.

Captain Beck handed the binoculars over to Captain Moore. He took a look through them.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Peacekeepers go meet them and bring them here.

INT/EXT - THE STREET - DAY

The peacekeepers left the station. They were stepping into the street of ooze, but they ran towards the townspeople. There were hundreds of them running out of the area.

CAPTAIN BECK

Those creatures must have been harvesting them for food.

The peacekeepers caught up to the other townspeople.

PK 25

Let us take you to the station.
We have a plan.

VOICE IN CROWD

(shouting out loud)

Thank you Lord.

2ND VOICE

(shouting out loud)

Thank you Lord!

3RD VOICE

Thank you Jesus!

They were all led inside of the Peacekeepers Station.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I'm so glad to see that you are all alive. Captain Beck. Will you come over here?

Captain Beck walked up next Captain Moore.

CAPTAIN MOORE

This here is the man who have given us a chance to survive.
He saved your lives.

Everyone cheered.

CAPTAIN BECK

Listen up. The aliens around here are dead. We are using high frequency sound that makes them vulnerable. The sound kills them but only if they can hear it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We are going to travel with the sound coming from the speakers that will be on top of vehicles.

CAPTAIN BECK

Those sounds will carry for at least a half a mile. We have to drive through streets.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We have to spread the sound waves everywhere to get rid of those creatures. Are you with us?

THE WHOLE TOWN

(cheering)

CAPTAIN BECK

As long as the siren is on those aliens will not come here. We have to take it to them.

CAPTAIN MOORE

For those who don't know. You will not be able to hear the sirens. Only those creatures can.

CAPTAIN BECK

Those who have running cars raise your hands.

Hands were raised.

CAPTAIN BECK

Good. Almost half of you have transportation. We have to carpool.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You cannot stay in your homes anymore. If the sirens go out you will not be able to tell and those creatures might come back.

CAPTAIN BECK

We have to rid our planet of every one of them.

TOWNSPEOPLE

(cheering)

CAPTAIN MOORE

Let's go then. I want everyone to meet back here within the hour.

EXT - IN FRONT OF THE PEACE KEEPERS STATION - DAY

An hour later over five hundred trailer homes, motorhomes, vans, jeeps and cars had shown up at the Peacekeepers Station. The mayor got on the microphone.

MAYOR

We are looking good. We even look like we're on a mission today.Ok.
Women and children can get inside of the trailers and motorhomes.

All of the women and children had climbed aboard.

Mayor

Now every man who do not have a ride come aboard.

Soon all of the townsfolk was on board. There were speakers on the front vehicles. Captain Beck was in the front of the caravan with Captain Moore right beside him. He gets on the microphone.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We're going to drive through the town of Jefferson.

The caravan had turned down the street. They went through different neighborhoods with the speakers on. A roar was heard and an alien came out of a house. Then it fell to the ground .
The owner of the house came outside to witness what was happening.

THE OWNER

What is that?

CAPTAIN BECK

That is what almost made you it's dinner.

Mayor

We're leaving and we have a plan
To survive.

CAPTAIN BECK

We're clearing out the town.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I suggest you come along. There will be no one left here after we Leave.

MAYOR

You don't need to pack anything.
Everything will be provided for you here.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We will explain everything to you once you are aboard.

The man decided to come aboard. The mayor spoke on the microphone.

Mayor

Attention. This is your mayor. The alien creatures are loose and is roaming the town, killing and kidnapping our citizens. I urge you to come out and leave with us.

Some people ran out of their homes with their kids. Creatures crashed through their windows and doors. The people screamed in shock. The creatures were hiding in their homes ready to strike.

When the creatures crashed through their doors and windows they fell to the ground. Their heads exploded and their bodies shriveled up with green ooze coming from them.

The people ran into the motor homes scared. More roars and growlings were heard throughout the streets as the people ran out of their homes to join the caravan.

More creatures crashed through walls and windows. Then exploded onto the streets. More motor homes were collected and added to the caravan. More people joined.

The creatures had filled the streets with green ooze. The caravan coasted through the ooze. Still more motorhomes and trailer homes were added to the caravan.

EXT - 194 EXPRESSWAY- DAY

After six hours had gone by all of the neighborhoods were covered. Creatures who were within the range of the sound had died. The caravan had left the town and left for the expressway.

They entered I 94 east and headed for Chicago. There were no other vehicles on the expressway. The peacekeepers made sure they had enough gas.

They were able to find three completely full gas trucks that was in running condition. There were at least fifteen hundred motorhomes and trailers that were added to the caravan.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Captain Beck. Pull off at I64. I want to take this caravan through Waukesha and Pewaukee. We can collect more motorhomes and save more people there.

EXT - WAUKESHA, WISCONSIN - DAY

They pulled off of the expressway and onto I 64 that took them through downtown Waukesha.

EXT- I 94 EXPRESSWAY - DAY

The caravan had collected the people and more motorhomes. They all headed for Chicago. Once back on the expressway everything was back to normal. The people looked out of the windows.

CARL

Look at the sky!

They all looked. The Argolians were crashing into one another and falling to the ground. The Argolians heard the sound in mid flight and fell onto the expressway.

The caravan was running over the creatures. More and more creatures exploded on the expressway. The caravan kept moving forward heading for Chicago.

There were over two thousand motorhomes on the road. The caravan was spotted by more Argolians. When the Argolians flew towards the caravan they dropped to the ground and exploded.

EXT - SKIES FILLED WITH THE ARGOLIANS - DAY

The Argolians had no more reasons to hide from their prey. Some of them did not hear the instructions from their leaders. They were too busy out hunting so they were out of touch.

The Argolians circled the sky. Looking for prey walking around. They spotted something moving. A long line of machines.

1ST ARGOLIAN

2ND ARGOLIAN

grunt,click,grunt. Plenty of food.

They all turned towards the caravan. There were at least twenty Argolians. They flew towards the caravan.

ARGOLIANS

(growling)

Click,click,click, arggg!

They growled. They crashed into each other. They went crazy. Some of the Argolians heads exploded in the air. Some had just fell and exploded when they hit the ground.

More Argolians had seen what had just happened and was curious so they all came too close to investigate. That was the end of them. The Argolians who were higher up in the sky had figured it out.

1ST ARGOLIAN

Click,click,click grunt. There's something about those machines down there that is killing us.

2ND ARGOLIAN

Grunt, grunt. Lets not take any chances. We'll hide and wait.

1ST ARGOLIAN

Grunt,click,grunt. We better spread the word that this species have a secret weapon that can kill us.

2ND ARGOLIAN

Grunt, grunt, grunt. Our comrades had abandoned us on this planet. We're on our own.

Suddenly the sky was clear. The caravan have been stopping at each small town that was on the same path facing the direction of Chicago, picking up more people and adding more motorhomes and trailer homes. The count was now thirty five hundred.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I can see the Sears Tower from here.

CAPTAIN BECK

Good. I don't know what we'll find there but we better be ready. Let's press on.

The caravan kept cruising in the direction of Chicago. They were now twenty miles away.

CAPTAIN MOORE

What do you think we'll find.
Captain?

CAPTAIN BECK

Hell is what we'll find. But we have the element of surprise.

Captain Moore had placed the binoculars on his face.

CAPTAIN MOORE

I can see the creatures from here, flying all over the place, as though they own it.

CAPTAIN BECK

I'm going to drive right onto the Chicago Loop. I want to make sure that they see us coming.

Suddenly the sky was black with the Argolians. There were so many of them in the sky that they had blotted out the sun. They all looked in the direction of the Caravan.

A long train consisting of 3500 vehicles. The Argolian's mouths started watering. They all flew towards the caravan making loud clicking and grunting sounds.

EXT - I 94 EXPRESSWAY - DAY

CAPTAIN BECK

Here they come. I'm stopping here.

The black cloud of Argolians was getting closer.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Captain Beck, I hope this idea of yours work out here too.

CAPTAIN BECK

It will. Watch what happens.

SAMANTHA

Momma look!

Ruth, and Carl looked out of the window.

CARL

Great God almighty! Look at them!

RUTH

There must be thousands of them.

Detective Wright was in another motorhome discussing the situation with some of the townspeople.

GARY

Do you think we can kill them all?

DETECTIVE WRIGHT

Well. We sure have the equipment but they have the numbers.

CAPTAIN BECK

Ok. Brace yourselves. Be ready for Anything.

EXT - THE BLACK CLOUD - DAY

The black cloud was now close enough for them to make out what it was. It was getting closer. The rest of the people in the motor homes were frightened at the sight of all those creatures coming at them. The sky itself was now black with aliens.

EXT - CHICAGO - DAY

Suddenly the Argolians were flying into each other. Ooze was dropping on top of the caravan. Then a thump and another thump. Then several thumps.

The bodies of thousands of alien creatures were falling from the sky and dripping green ooze all down the side of the motorhomes.

The bodies of the creatures were falling onto the streets. Green ooze was everywhere.

More Argolians had joined in. They didn't know the danger they were in because the sky was full of their kind. They were dropping out of the sky like rain.

The expressways were filling up with green slime. An hour had gone by. The last of the Argolians had fallen from the sky and shriveled up on the expressway .

EXT - JACKSON STREET - DAY

The caravan started up and came off of the expressway onto Jackson Street. A caravan of 3500 vehicles. Captain Beck turned on the loudspeaker.

CAPTAIN BECK

I need every one of you to blow your horns. That will attract more of them, and it will let them know that we are coming.

They all blew their horns as they passed through the heart of downtown Chicago. Argolians crashed through the windows and fell to the ground bursting with ooze.

The people started running out of the buildings. They were waved towards the caravan.

A group of people were inside of a building, in a frozen state. An Argolian had crept up in front of them.

MAN

(screaming in his mind)

Nooo!, stoop!

The Argolian took the man's hand and started to place it into its mouth, when suddenly the Argolian grabbed its own head.

It flew around the room holding it. Then it's head exploded and it fell to the floor with ooze coming out of its chest. The people became unfrozen.

CLARA

Did you see what just happened?

BONNIE

I saw it, and I still do believe it.

Toby looked out of the window.

Toby

Hey guys look! Motorhomes. Thousands of them. Let's go.

They all ran down the stairs and out the door.

CAPTAIN MOORE

Come on. Get inside. We're saving mankind from extinction.

The doors of the building opened up and the people came running out. More people were coming when they heard the voice on the speakers.

CAPTAIN BECK

Well Captain Moore. We did it.

CAPTAIN MOORE

No. You did it. You found their weakness.

CAPTAIN BECK

No. The real hero is my niece,

Samantha and her little puppy, Putt Putt. If it wasn't for her whistle, I wouldn't have been able to do all of this.

CAPTAIN MOORE

You know something? Some of the things we take for granted can be the very thing we need to save humanity.

MAYOR

I only hope that mankind, on the other side of the globe can do the same.

CAPTAIN BECK

We can never let our guards down.
We have to start living a different way of life because those aliens now know that we have a means to destroy them.

CAPTAIN MOORE

We'll never know if we have won.

CAPTAIN BECK

I'm sure. As highly advanced as those creatures are, they will spread the word that it will not be that easy to become the Dominant Species.

THE COMMENTATOR (V.O.)

3500 motorhomes roll through the streets, picking up people.
Increasing mankind's chances of survival. Adding trailer homes, and motorhomes to their caravan. Creating a new frontier.

The Argolians watches as the caravan rolls on. The Argolians wait for the right time to eat. They know that they are the dominant species. Mankind knows that we are the dominant species.

FADE TO BLACK :

COMMENTATOR (V.O.)

Only time will tell.

THE END ?
