

LULL

FADE IN:

INT - METAL ROOM

JACOB sits in a metallic room, strapped firmly to a steel framed chair, a brace supports his neck tilting his head upwards to face a large semi-spherical screen which covers the ceiling. Hundreds of wires trail from his body which flash with sporadic blue lights. His demeanor is calm, his eyes a tranquil blue.

There is a bright white flash.

CUT-TO - EXT. BEACH - DAY

Jacob stands on a beach at dusk looking onwards to the crashing blue waves upon the coast, he glances to his right to see a beautiful woman in a red dress clasping his hand.

A white flash, CUT-TO - INT. METAL ROOM

Jacob is back in the metal room, strapped to the chair

JACOB

What was that?

VOICE (O.S)

Time

(beat)

Time Jacob. Without time what incentive do you have to do anything?

(beat)

What purpose is there in eternity?

A white flash, CUT-TO EXT. AMAZON FOREST - DAY

Jacob moves through a lush green amazon forest, the bright sunlight breaking through the leaves, several tribal children weave playfully through the trees and guide him.

A white flash, CUT-TO INT - METAL ROOM

VOICE (O.S)

What is the point in creating something that cannot be destroyed?

A white flash, CUT-TO EXT. AMAZON FOREST - DUSK

Jacob watches as a forest fire burns, bodies hidden amongst the flames.

VOICE (V.O)
Where is the thrill in having something you have always had?

CUT-TO - EXT. CREEK - NIGHT

A Japanese WWII Soldier lunges towards Jacob, he shouts in a horrific deep and curdled voice, his face contorted with rage. We see little else but his face and his water soaked clothing in the moonlight, we hear the heavy beat of rain. He thrusts several times tearing into Jacobs stomach and chest.

VOICE (V.O)
How can you cherish what you can never lose?
(beat)

JACOB (V.O)
What are you doing?

CUT-TO EXT. PARK - DAY

Jacob stands amongst hundreds of people whom are gathered in the park. They look up to the sky which is shaking an eerie shade of red. Mothers hold their children tightly and teary eyed. The sun in the sky sharply expands in a shock of orange light before collapsing in on itself and disappearing into a dot. The world falls into darkness.

VOICE (V.O)
We are inventing

JACOB (V.O)
Inventing what?

VOICE (V.O)
Death Jacob, we are inventing death.
