

Smitten Hostility by Jonathan Sieff

Logline: Tensions flare between a criminal couple when their third crew member is left behind after a robbery.

- - - - -

KYRA (26) and JASON (28) are at it hot and heavy in the back of a car. Their session is interrupted when Jason notices LIAM (28) approaching the vehicle. He enters, hands Jason a duffel bag, and says it's got everything they'll need inside. He turns to Kyra, they kiss, and he tells her they'll soon be on holiday. As the car drives off, Kyra's hand finds Jason's.

A large basement with the remnants of a planned bank robbery: a map, a route from the bank, through an alleyway, to a getaway car driven by Liam. Liam and Kyra make out. Kyra goes to the duffel bag and sticks her head inside looking for something. Liam asks her if she ditched the gun. Kyra nods, excited to be off on holiday.

Kyra grabs some beers to celebrate, but Liam's worried about Jason's whereabouts and makes a call. Kyra tries to put Liam's mind at ease by seducing him and telling him to forget about Jason. She flings his phone aside leaving Liam speechless. They're back to making out and Kyra starts to go down on Liam. About to unbuckle his trousers, Kyra peers up only to see an angry Liam staring at her.

Liam forces Kyra to the floor, gets on top of her and puts a hand on her throat. He asks her what happened which leads to a flashback of Jason running for his life through an alleyway, only to miss the getaway car. A shadow looms over Jason as he clenches his fist.

Liam's fuming, strangles Kyra, upset that she left his best friend to take the fall for them. She's struggling, hands searching for a weapon... finds something. Whacks Liam with a beer can. Both lay there pained, before making it back to their feet. They fight, and Liam manages to get the better of Kyra. He grabs the duffel bag and makes his escape.

A pair of hands drag him back down into the basement. Kyra grabs the duffel bag and makes it to her feet. Liam, hurt, staggers towards her. She swings the bag into Liam, knocking him to the floor. Kyra stands over Liam and gets on top of him.

Kyra toys with Liam, using her sexuality as a weapon before strangling him. The last thing Liam sees is Jason entering the room.

Jason helps Kyra up and they embrace, Kyra tells him that it was always meant to be them. She approaches the duffel bag, then turns to Jason, one hand behind her back and seductively saunters over. Jason's hers as Kyra drops onto his lap and gives him a passionate kiss.

Kyra pulls away, and metal rattling causes a confused Jason to open his eyes, only to find a gun in his mouth. Kyra blows him a kiss.